THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

Introduction

1. From on or about June 2020 through June 2022, the defendants, HOMERO ZAMORANO JR., FELIPE ORDUNA-TORRES, ARMANDO GONZALES-ORTEGA, and others (collectively “smugglers”), participated in a human smuggling organization which illegally brought adults and children from Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, and Mexico (collectively “aliens”) into the United States. The aliens were not U.S. citizens and did not have prior official authorization from the U.S. government to come to, enter, and reside in the United States.

2. Each alien, or their families and friends, paid money, generally the equivalent of $12,000-$15,000, to individuals in Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, Mexico, the United States, and elsewhere, to be transported illegally into the United States. This fee normally included multiple “attempts”—that is, if the alien was caught by U.S. law enforcement at or near the border and deported, the organization would smuggle them into the United States again for no additional fee.

3. The smugglers worked in concert with each other to transport, and facilitate the transportation of, the aliens, utilizing each other’s routes, guides, stash houses, trucks, trailers, and transporters. This association enabled the smugglers to consolidate costs, spread risk, and operate more profitably.

4. To ensure proper accounting, each alien was given a code word—the “clave”—to provide at various points along their journey. These code words established that the alien was a “customer” of a smuggler who had arranged access for that portion of the journey, be it a stay at a stash house, a ride in a vehicle, or the assistance of a guide.

5. Once in the United States, the aliens were to be transported to various destinations within the United States, including San Antonio, other areas within the Western District of Texas, and beyond.

6. The smugglers operating in the United States worked in concert with smugglers operating in Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, and Mexico.

7. The organization maintained a variety of tractors and trailers, which it used to transport aliens from near the United States border to San Antonio. Some of these tractors and trailers were stored at a private parking lot in San Antonio.

8. Members of the organization managed stash houses along the border and coordinators worked to consolidate aliens from these stash houses into larger groups that could be transported in tractor-trailer loads from Laredo to San Antonio. Members of the organization recruited and coordinated drivers for various loads of aliens.

9. In the days leading up to June 27, 2022, ORDUNA-TORRES, and others, exchanged the names of aliens who would be transported in an upcoming tractor-trailer load.

10. On June 27, 2022, the defendants charged herein, and others, facilitated and coordinated the retrieval of an empty tractor-trailer and the corresponding hand-off of the tractor-trailer to a driver in San Antonio.

11. The organization recruited ZAMORANO to drive the tractor-trailer, as he had done previously. ZAMORANO was driven from Palestine, Texas to a gas station in San Antonio, where he picked up the empty tractor-trailer. ZAMORANO was to be paid for his role.

12. ZAMORANO then drove the tractor-trailer to Laredo, where groups of aliens were transported in box trucks from stash houses to the location of the tractor-trailer. ZAMORANO received the load-up address from a co-conspirator, who was provided it by ORDUNA-TORRES. GONZALES-ORTEGA also traveled to Laredo and met the tractor-trailer at the load-up location. In total, at least 64 aliens were loaded into the back of the 53-foot trailer, including eight children and one pregnant woman.

13. The aliens were told to give up their cell phones prior to entering the trailer and were instructed to keep quiet on the journey. An unknown powder was dispensed in the back of the trailer to mask the smell of the human cargo from detection K-9s at U.S. Border Patrol Checkpoints.

14. Once the trailer was loaded with the aliens, ZAMORANO drove it north along IH-35 to

San Antonio. GONZALES-ORTEGA returned to San Antonio as well.

15. Throughout the transport, ORDUNA-TORRES, GONZALES-ORTEGA, and others, coordinated, facilitated, passed messages, and made each other aware of the tractor-trailer's progress. Some messages and instructions were passed to ZAMORANO.

16. Known to some of the defendants charged herein, the trailer's air-conditioning unit was not working properly and did not blow any cool air to the aliens inside.

17. As the temperature inside the trailer rose, chaos ensued. Some aliens screamed and banged on the walls for help. Others kicked and clawed at the sides of the trailer attempting to escape. Most eventually passed out, unconscious.

18. After making the approximate 3-hour journey, the tractor-trailer arrived at the designated unloading location along Quintana Road in San Antonio. The location is easily accessible from IH-35, but is desolate, private, and experiences little traffic. Members of the organization met the tractor-trailer, planning to transport aliens in smaller loads to various destinations.

19. When the doors to the trailer were opened, 48 of the aliens were either already dead or died on site, including one who was pregnant. Members of the organization immediately transported away at least two aliens who were still alive. Other members fled the location after discovering so many of the aliens had died. ZAMORANO was found hiding in the nearby brush by responding law enforcement.

20. Fifteen aliens were transported to hospitals—5 of those died.

21. Of the 53 total aliens who perished, 26 were Mexican nationals, 21 were Guatemalan nationals, and 6 were Honduran nationals.
